General Price List

Effective Date: February 7, 2024

Subject to change without notice

The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected

This establishment offers for sale caskets and outer burial containers which may be purchased and used, at your option, in connections with the funeral services and funeral disposition of human remains. However, except under certain public health circumstances pursuant to A.R.S § 36-136, state law does not require the purchase or use of casket or containers.

Professional Services of Funeral Director and Staff and Overhead:

This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the funeral arrangements you select. (This fee is already included in our charges for direct cremations, immediate burials, and forwarding or receiving remains.)

Additionally, this fee or a portion of it may be added to the cost of using facilities, staffing or services when our funeral home has not taken possession of or sheltered the body. The fee includes the following: Personnel available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year to respond to initial call. Arrangement conference, clerical assistance in the completion of various forms and permits associated with funeral. Also covers overhead including facility maintenance, equipment and inventory costs, insurance and administration expenses, and governmental compliance. Processing of insurance and filing of state death certificates. - - - - - $1,800.00

Preparation of the body:

Except in certain special cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary, however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it such as a direct cremation or immediate burial.
